

WEATHER FORECAST.

Probably Fair To-Day, with Fresh Easterly Winds.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Weather forecast for Sunday and Monday:

Indiana—Fair on Sunday preceded by showers in southeastern portions; fresh east winds. Monday fair.

Illinois—Generally fair on Sunday and Monday; warmer Sunday in northern portion; fresh east winds, becoming variable.

Ohio—Showers on Sunday; fresh north-east winds. Monday fair.

Western Pennsylvania—Showers on Sunday. Monday fair; light to fresh east winds.

Lower Michigan—Partly cloudy on Sunday; showers in eastern portion; warmer in western portion. Monday fair; fresh east winds.

Arkansas—General fair on Sunday and Monday.

Tennessee—Fair in western, showers in eastern portion on Sunday. Cooler in southeastern portion. Monday fair; warmer in eastern portion.

Iowa—Fair on Sunday; warmer in northern portion. Monday partly cloudy, probably showers and cooler.

Wisconsin—Fair Sunday; Monday partly cloudy, probably showers and cooler in western portions; light to east winds, becoming variable.

North Dakota—Showers and cooler Sunday. Monday fair; warmer in northern portion.

South Dakota—Showers and cooler Sunday. Monday fair.

Nebraska and Kansas—Fair in eastern; showers and cooler in western portions Sunday. Monday probably fair.

Local Observations on Saturday.

Bar. Ther. R.H. Wind. Weather. Precip.

Indianapolis, Ind. 72. 80. 75. S. 10. Clear. .00

Maximum temperature, 80; minimum temperature, 60.

Comparative statement of the mean temperature and total precipitation on Aug. 15.

Normal 72. 80. 75. S. 10. Clear. .00

Departure for month -2. -10. -10. S. 10. Clear. .00

Departure since Jan. 1 -35. -44. -44. S. 10. Clear. .00

W. T. Dwyer, Section Director.

Yesterday's Temperatures.

Stations. 7 a.m. Max. 7 p.m.

Albany, N. Y. 62. 72. 60.

Albany, N. Y. 62. 72. 60.

Albany, N. Y. 62. 72. 60.

Albany, N. Y. 62. 72. 60.

Albany, N. Y. 62. 72. 60.

Albany, N. Y. 62. 72. 60.

Albany, N. Y. 62. 72. 60.

Albany, N. Y. 62. 72. 60.

Albany, N. Y. 62. 72. 60.

Albany, N. Y. 62. 72. 60.

Albany, N. Y. 62. 72. 60.

Albany, N. Y. 62. 72. 60.

Albany, N. Y. 62. 72. 60.

Albany, N. Y. 62. 72. 60.

Albany, N. Y. 62. 72. 60.

Albany, N. Y. 62. 72. 60.

Albany, N. Y. 62. 72. 60.

Albany, N. Y. 62. 72. 60.

Albany, N. Y. 62. 72. 60.

Albany, N. Y. 62. 72. 60.

Albany, N. Y. 62. 72. 60.

ARCHBISHOP OF CEBU

J. J. HARTY, OF ST. LOUIS, IS CONSECrated AT HOME.

Cardinal Satolli officiates before a brilliant assemblage in church of St. Francis.

GIBBONS COULD NOT ATTEND

CELEBRATED MASS IN CHURCH OF HIS PATRON SAINT.

Has Gone to Switzerland for a Rest—Austria Expressed Right of Veto in Papal Election.

ROME, Aug. 15.—The consecration of the Rev. J. J. Harty, of St. Louis, as archbishop of Manila, took place today in the Franciscan church of St. Anthony. Added interest to the ceremony was given by the fact that the first archbishop to be consecrated under Pius X was an American.

Cardinal Satolli officiated, and was assisted by two bishops. The new archbishop was anointed with holy oil on the temples and palms of his hands. He was then given the Episcopal ring, symbolic of his marriage with the church; the mitre and the pastoral staff of power. Archbishop Harty then offered Cardinal Satolli two lighted torches, two loaves of bread and two small golden vessels of wine as symbols of his love towards his consecrator. This offering was followed by the kiss of peace from Cardinal Satolli.

The service was accompanied by sweet music. It was a solemn moment when the new archbishop walked through the church, imparting his first Episcopal benediction to the kneeling congregation.

Among those present at the consecration were the Rev. Dennis O'Connell, rector of the Catholic University at Washington; Monsignor Kennedy, with the members of the American college; Bishop Hendrick, of Cebu, and his brother, Father Joseph Hendrick; Monsignor Edward W. Fowler and Father David Fleming, formerly superior general of the Franciscans.

After the ceremony refreshments were served in the refectory of the Franciscan monastery. The fact that the first American archbishop of Manila was consecrated in the church, which is the seat of the general house of the Franciscan monks, one of the four orders of monks in the Philippines, was much commented on.

Cardinal Satolli later gave at his residence in the basilica of St. John Lateran a dinner in honor of Archbishop Harty, at which were present Rector O'Connell, Mr. Kennedy, Mr. Fowler, Mr. Fleming, secretary of the Consistorial Congregation, and Bishops Panig and Tonetti, who assisted Cardinal Satolli at the consecration ceremony. Toasts were drunk to the Pope, President Roosevelt and to the success of Archbishop Harty in his labors in the Philippines. Archbishop Harty will leave Rome next Wednesday.

Cardinal Gibbons was unable to assist at the consecration of Archbishop Harty because today being the feast day of his titular church, Santa Maria Di Trastevere, he had to assist at mass there. The Cardinal left Rome to-night for Switzerland, where he will remain some time with a friend to recover from his labors in Rome. The cardinal, however, is only suffering from a slight lassitude, otherwise he is perfectly well. Before his departure he received most cordial wishes from the cardinals still in Rome, who wished to manifest their esteem and affection for him.

Specialized Associated Press representative, Cardinal Gibbons said the conclave and the election of the Pope will remain the most memorable event of his life. He repeated that he felt the greatest satisfaction at the election of Pius X, adding that he was proud and happy to have been able to have the American pilgrimage received the day after the election of the new Pope. This was the first time since the first of the day, was an event that neither Pius X nor the Americans will ever forget.

Exercised Right of Veto.

VIENNA, Aug. 15.—A semi-official communication explains that Austria exercised her right of veto at the recent conclave, "with the view of securing the election of a papal and conciliatory Pope."

"The election of Pius X," says the Comique, "who is conciliatory, yet firm, has been received everywhere with unanimous approval."

The engine preceded the train to Ashley to take water and was about to start back to pick up the cars when they came dashing down the mountain side at terrific speed. They crashed into the locomotive and Charles Devitt, a brakeman, was killed. He lost a leg and arm. Engineer Johnson, of another train, which was standing at the crossing, which caused his rescuers and seriously injured.

Eighteen cars and their contents were strewn over both tracks, delaying traffic for several hours.

Brakeman and Tramps Killed.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 15.—Harry B. Tarbett, a brakeman, was killed and two other railroad men injured in a collision of freight trains on the Pennsylvania Railroad at Radnor, near here, about twenty cars were wrecked and their contents strewn over both tracks, blocking traffic for several hours. Two tramps who were stealing a ride were killed.

FIRE IN STOCKYARDS.

Loss of $40,000 and Three Men Injured at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 15.—Fire starting in a shed in which stock droves slept destroyed Annex B of the Union stockyards early this morning, causing a loss of $40,000. A large quantity of live stock narrowly escaped destruction, and three men were severely injured. The stables of M. F. Brown and Robert West also were destroyed.

The annex contained sixty-eight double cattle pens, besides a large building filled with hay and straw. All the cattle, horses, mules and calves in the annex were safely removed except one exceptionally fine export steer, which caught his rescuers and remained to be cremated. The loss of the stockyards is fully insured.

Town Burned by Incendiaries.

MARINETTE, Wis., Aug. 15.—The business portion of the town of Marinette, Marinette county, was wiped out by fire last night. It is supposed to have been incendiary. The loss is about $200,000.

Arrested for Bank Theft.

REDBANK, N. J., Aug. 15.—Enoch L. Redbank, N. J., was arrested today on the charge of embezzling $40,000 of the bank's funds. The complaint was made by Special Examiner W. A. Mason, Cowart surrendered to United States Marshal Garsardo here and furnished $10,000 bail to await the action of the United States grand jury.

BIG INSURANCE MERGER.

Pittsburgh Trust Company Acquires a Toledo Organization.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 15.—The Pittsburgh Life and Trust Company has concluded a deal whereby it acquires the control of the Northern Central Life Insurance Company of Toledo, O. The president of the Toledo company is W. S. Mathews, formerly insurance commissioner of Ohio, through whom the Pittsburgh company negotiated the purchase.

The Northern Central has $55,500,000 in force for the States of Ohio, Michigan, West Virginia, west Pennsylvania and Kentucky. It turns over its entire business, agency, force and officers and the Pittsburgh company obtains immediately entrance into the State owned by R. H. Pittsburgh Life and Trust Company was established in 1883.

WAYS OF TRUST MAKERS

AIRIED IN ARGUMENTS FOR APPOINTMENT OF A RECEIVER.

Universal Tobacco Company's Affairs Are Receiving a Thorough Overhauling in New Jersey.

NEWARK, N. J., Aug. 15.—Argument in the application of Edwin A. McKim, and others for the appointment of a receiver for the Universal Tobacco Company was resumed today before Vice-Chancellor Fittney by Attorney General Robert H. McCarter, of counsel for the defendant corporation. Mr. McCarter said that when George P. and William H. Butler, Bourke Cockran and H. C. Wiesinger agreed to put money into the company, which was to be known by Tiford, it was with the understanding that the voting trust should exist and that Frank Tiford and Henry R. Wilson were to remain with them in the attempt to fight the American Tobacco Company. But instead of doing so, Mr. McCarter said, Tiford and Wilson got out when they got what they wanted and did not consider the obligation they were under to others who had joined them in the enterprise. He claimed that the allegation of insolvency made by the complainants was false. He said that the fact that the corporation wanted more capital was no proof of insolvency. At the close of Mr. McCarter's argument, the vice-chancellor ordered a continuance of the case to next Wednesday.

When Mr. Peckham resumed by referring to the vice-chancellor's opinion of the case, he said that the fact that the corporation wanted more capital was no proof of insolvency. At the close of Mr. McCarter's argument, the vice-chancellor ordered a continuance of the case to next Wednesday.

Cardinal Gibbons was unable to assist at the consecration of Archbishop Harty because today being the feast day of his titular church, Santa Maria Di Trastevere, he had to assist at mass there. The Cardinal left Rome to-night for Switzerland, where he will remain some time with a friend to recover from his labors in Rome. The cardinal, however, is only suffering from a slight lassitude, otherwise he is perfectly well. Before his departure he received most cordial wishes from the cardinals still in Rome, who wished to manifest their esteem and affection for him.

Specialized Associated Press representative, Cardinal Gibbons said the conclave and the election of the Pope will remain the most memorable event of his life. He repeated that he felt the greatest satisfaction at the election of Pius X, adding that he was proud and happy to have been able to have the American pilgrimage received the day after the election of the new Pope. This was the first time since the first of the day, was an event that neither Pius X nor the Americans will ever forget.

Cardinal Gibbons was unable to assist at the consecration of Archbishop Harty because today being the feast day of his titular church, Santa Maria Di Trastevere, he had to assist at mass there. The Cardinal left Rome to-night for Switzerland, where he will remain some time with a friend to recover from his labors in Rome. The cardinal, however, is only suffering from a slight lassitude, otherwise he is perfectly well. Before his departure he received most cordial wishes from the cardinals still in Rome, who wished to manifest their esteem and affection for him.

Specialized Associated Press representative, Cardinal Gibbons said the conclave and the election of the Pope will remain the most memorable event of his life. He repeated that he felt the greatest satisfaction at the election of Pius X, adding that he was proud and happy to have been able to have the American pilgrimage received the day after the election of the new Pope. This was the first time since the first of the day, was an event that neither Pius X nor the Americans will ever forget.

Cardinal Gibbons was unable to assist at the consecration of Archbishop Harty because today being the feast day of his titular church, Santa Maria Di Trastevere, he had to assist at mass there. The Cardinal left Rome to-night for Switzerland, where he will remain some time with a friend to recover from his labors in Rome. The cardinal, however, is only suffering from a slight lassitude, otherwise he is perfectly well. Before his departure he received most cordial wishes from the cardinals still in Rome, who wished to manifest their esteem and affection for him.

Specialized Associated Press representative, Cardinal Gibbons said the conclave and the election of the Pope will remain the most memorable event of his life. He repeated that he felt the greatest satisfaction at the election of Pius X, adding that he was proud and happy to have been able to have the American pilgrimage received the day after the election of the new Pope. This was the first time since the first of the day, was an event that neither Pius X nor the Americans will ever forget.

Cardinal Gibbons was unable to assist at the consecration of Archbishop Harty because today being the feast day of his titular church, Santa Maria Di Trastevere, he had to assist at mass there. The Cardinal left Rome to-night for Switzerland, where he will remain some time with a friend to recover from his labors in Rome. The cardinal, however, is only suffering from a slight lassitude, otherwise he is perfectly well. Before his departure he received most cordial wishes from the cardinals still in Rome, who wished to manifest their esteem and affection for him.

Specialized Associated Press representative, Cardinal Gibbons said the conclave and the election of the Pope will remain the most memorable event of his life. He repeated that he felt the greatest satisfaction at the election of Pius X, adding that he was proud and happy to have been able to have the American pilgrimage received the day after the election of the new Pope. This was the first time since the first of the day, was an event that neither Pius X nor the Americans will ever forget.

Cardinal Gibbons was unable to assist at the consecration of Archbishop Harty because today being the feast day of his titular church, Santa Maria Di Trastevere, he had to assist at mass there. The Cardinal left Rome to-night for Switzerland, where he will remain some time with a friend to recover from his labors in Rome. The cardinal, however, is only suffering from a slight lassitude, otherwise he is perfectly well. Before his departure he received most cordial wishes from the cardinals still in Rome, who wished to manifest their esteem and affection for him.

Specialized Associated Press representative, Cardinal Gibbons said the conclave and the election of the Pope will remain the most memorable event of his life. He repeated that he felt the greatest satisfaction at the election of Pius X, adding that he was proud and happy to have been able to have the American pilgrimage received the day after the election of the new Pope. This was the first time since the first of the day, was an event that neither Pius X nor the Americans will ever forget.

Cardinal Gibbons was unable to assist at the consecration of Archbishop Harty because today being the feast day of his titular church, Santa Maria Di Trastevere, he had to assist at mass there. The Cardinal left Rome to-night for Switzerland, where he will remain some time with a friend to recover from his labors in Rome. The cardinal, however, is only suffering from a slight lassitude, otherwise he is perfectly well. Before his departure he received most cordial wishes from the cardinals still in Rome, who wished to manifest their esteem and affection for him.

Specialized Associated Press representative, Cardinal Gibbons said the conclave and the election of the Pope will remain the most memorable event of his life. He repeated that he felt the greatest satisfaction at the election of Pius X, adding that he was proud and happy to have been able to have the American pilgrimage received the day after the election of the new Pope. This was the first time since the first of the day, was an event that neither Pius X nor the Americans will ever forget.

Cardinal Gibbons was unable to assist at the consecration of Archbishop Harty because today being the feast day of his titular church, Santa Maria Di Trastevere, he had to assist at mass there. The Cardinal left Rome to-night for Switzerland, where he will remain some time with a friend to recover from his labors in Rome. The cardinal, however, is only suffering from a slight lassitude, otherwise he is perfectly well. Before his departure he received most cordial wishes from the cardinals still in Rome, who wished to manifest their esteem and affection for him.

Specialized Associated Press representative, Cardinal Gibbons said the conclave and the election of the Pope will remain the most memorable event of his life. He repeated that he felt the greatest satisfaction at the election of Pius X, adding that he was proud and happy to have been able to have the American pilgrimage received the day after the election of the new Pope. This was the first time since the first of the day, was an event that neither Pius X nor the Americans will ever forget.

Cardinal Gibbons was unable to assist at the consecration of Archbishop Harty because today being the feast day of his titular church, Santa Maria Di Trastevere, he had to assist at mass there. The Cardinal left Rome to-night for Switzerland, where he will remain some time with a friend to recover from his labors in Rome. The cardinal, however, is only suffering from a slight lassitude, otherwise he is perfectly well. Before his departure he received most cordial wishes from the cardinals still in Rome, who wished to manifest their esteem and affection for him.

Specialized Associated Press representative, Cardinal Gibbons said the conclave and the election of the Pope will remain the most memorable event of his life. He repeated that he felt the greatest satisfaction at the election of Pius X, adding that he was proud and happy to have been able to have the American pilgrimage received the day after the election of the new Pope. This was the first time since the first of the day, was an event that neither Pius X nor the Americans will ever forget.

Cardinal Gibbons was unable to assist at the consecration of Archbishop Harty because today being the feast day of his titular church, Santa Maria Di Trastevere, he had to assist at mass there. The Cardinal left Rome to-night for Switzerland, where he will remain some time with a friend to recover from his labors in Rome. The cardinal, however, is only suffering from a slight lassitude, otherwise he is perfectly well. Before his departure he received most cordial wishes from the cardinals still in Rome, who wished to manifest their esteem and affection for him.

Specialized Associated Press representative, Cardinal Gibbons said the conclave and the election of the Pope will remain the most memorable event of his life. He repeated that he felt the greatest satisfaction at the election of Pius X, adding that he was proud and happy to have been able to have the American pilgrimage received the day after the election of the new Pope. This was the first time since the first of the day, was an event that neither Pius X nor the Americans will ever forget.

Cardinal Gibbons was unable to assist at the consecration of Archbishop Harty because today being the feast day of his titular church, Santa Maria Di Trastevere, he had to assist at mass there. The Cardinal left Rome to-night for Switzerland, where he will remain some time with a friend to recover from his labors in Rome. The cardinal, however, is only suffering from a slight lassitude, otherwise he is perfectly well. Before his departure he received most cordial wishes from the cardinals still in Rome, who wished to manifest their esteem and affection for him.

Specialized Associated Press representative, Cardinal Gibbons said the conclave and the election of the Pope will remain the most memorable event of his life. He repeated that he felt the greatest satisfaction at the election of Pius X, adding that he was proud and happy to have been able to have the American pilgrimage received the day after the election of the new Pope. This was the first time since the first of the day, was an event that neither Pius X nor the Americans will ever forget.

Cardinal Gibbons was unable to assist at the consecration of Archbishop Harty because today being the feast day of his titular church, Santa Maria Di Trastevere, he had to assist at mass there. The Cardinal left Rome to-night for Switzerland, where he will remain some time with a friend to recover from his labors in Rome. The cardinal, however, is only suffering from a slight lassitude, otherwise he is perfectly well. Before his departure he received most cordial wishes from the cardinals still in Rome, who wished to manifest their esteem and affection for him.

Specialized Associated Press representative, Cardinal Gibbons said the conclave and the election of the Pope will remain the most memorable event of his life. He repeated that he felt the greatest satisfaction at the election of Pius X, adding that he was proud and happy to have been able to have the American pilgrimage received the day after the election of the new Pope. This was the first time since the first of the day, was an event that neither Pius X nor the Americans will ever forget.

Cardinal Gibbons was unable to assist at the consecration of Archbishop Harty because today being the feast day of his titular church, Santa Maria Di Trastevere, he had to assist at mass there. The Cardinal left Rome to-night for Switzerland, where he will remain some time with a friend to recover from his labors in Rome. The cardinal, however, is only suffering from a slight lassitude, otherwise he is perfectly well. Before his departure he received most cordial wishes from the cardinals still in Rome, who wished to manifest their esteem and affection for him.

Specialized Associated Press representative, Cardinal Gibbons said the conclave and the election of the Pope will remain the most memorable event of his life. He repeated that he felt the greatest satisfaction at the election of Pius X, adding that he was proud and happy to have been able to have the American pilgrimage received the day after the election of the new Pope. This was the first time since the first of the day, was an event that neither Pius X nor the Americans will ever forget.

Cardinal Gibbons was unable to assist at the consecration of Archbishop Harty because today being the feast day of his titular church, Santa Maria Di Trastevere, he had to assist at mass there. The Cardinal left Rome to-night for Switzerland, where he will remain some time with a friend to recover from his labors in Rome. The cardinal, however, is only suffering from a slight lassitude, otherwise he is perfectly well. Before his departure he received most cordial wishes from the cardinals still in Rome, who wished to manifest their esteem and affection for him.

Specialized Associated Press representative, Cardinal Gibbons said the conclave and the election of the Pope will remain the most memorable event of his life. He repeated that he felt the greatest satisfaction at the election of Pius X, adding that he was proud and happy to have been able to have the American pilgrimage received the day after the election of the new Pope. This was the first time since the first of the day, was an event that neither Pius X nor the Americans will ever forget.

Cardinal Gibbons was unable to assist at the consecration of Archbishop Harty because today being the feast day of his titular church, Santa Maria Di Trastevere, he had to assist at mass there. The Cardinal left Rome to-night for Switzerland, where he will remain some time with a friend to recover from his labors in Rome. The cardinal, however, is only suffering from a slight lassitude, otherwise he is perfectly well. Before his departure he received most cordial wishes from the cardinals still in Rome, who wished to manifest their esteem and affection for him.

Specialized Associated Press representative, Cardinal Gibbons said the conclave and the election of the Pope will remain the most memorable event of his life. He repeated that he felt the greatest satisfaction at the election of Pius X, adding that he was proud and happy to have been able to have the American pilgrimage received the day after the election of the new Pope. This was the first time since the first of the day, was an event that neither Pius X nor the Americans will ever forget.

Cardinal Gibbons was unable to assist at the consecration of Archbishop Harty because today being the feast day of his titular church, Santa Maria Di Trastevere, he had to assist at mass there. The Cardinal left Rome to-night for Switzerland, where he will remain some time with a friend to recover from his labors in Rome. The cardinal, however, is only suffering from a slight lassitude, otherwise he is perfectly well. Before his departure he received most cordial wishes from the cardinals still in Rome, who wished to manifest their esteem and affection for him.

Specialized Associated Press representative, Cardinal Gibbons said the conclave and the election of the Pope will remain the most memorable event of his life. He repeated that he felt the greatest satisfaction at the election of Pius X, adding that he was proud and happy to have been able to have the American pilgrimage received the day after the election of the new Pope. This was the first time since the first of the day, was an event that neither Pius X nor the Americans will ever forget.

Cardinal Gibbons was unable to assist at the consecration of Archbishop Harty because today being the feast day of his titular church, Santa Maria Di Trastevere, he had to assist at mass there. The Cardinal left Rome to-night for Switzerland, where he will remain some time with a friend to recover from his labors in Rome. The cardinal, however, is only suffering from a slight lassitude, otherwise he is perfectly well. Before his departure he received most cordial wishes from the cardinals still in Rome, who wished to manifest their esteem and affection for him.

Specialized Associated Press representative, Cardinal Gibbons said the conclave and the election of the Pope will remain the most memorable event of his life. He repeated that he felt the greatest satisfaction at the election of Pius X, adding that he was proud and happy to have been able to have the American pilgrimage received the day after the election of the new Pope. This was the first time since the first of the day, was an event that neither Pius X nor the Americans will ever forget.

Cardinal Gibbons was unable to assist at the consecration of Archbishop Harty because today being the feast day of his titular church, Santa Maria Di Trastevere, he had to assist at mass there. The Cardinal left Rome to-night for Switzerland, where he will remain some time with a friend to recover from his labors in Rome. The cardinal, however, is only suffering from a slight lassitude, otherwise he is perfectly well. Before his departure he received most cordial wishes from the cardinals still in Rome, who wished to manifest their esteem and affection for him.

Specialized Associated Press representative, Cardinal Gibbons said the conclave and the election of the Pope will remain the most memorable event of his life. He repeated that he felt the greatest satisfaction at the election of Pius X, adding that he was proud and happy to have been able to have the American pilgrimage received the day after the election of the new Pope. This was the first time since the first of the day, was an event that neither Pius X nor the Americans will ever forget.

Cardinal Gibbons was unable to assist at the consecration of Archbishop Harty because today being the feast day of his titular church, Santa Maria Di Trastevere, he had to assist at mass there. The Cardinal left Rome to-night for Switzerland, where he will remain some time with a friend to recover from his labors in Rome. The cardinal, however, is only suffering from a slight lassitude, otherwise he is perfectly well. Before his departure he received most cordial wishes from the cardinals still in Rome, who wished to manifest their esteem and affection for him.

Specialized Associated Press representative, Cardinal Gibbons said the conclave and the election of the Pope will remain the most memorable event of his life. He repeated that he felt the greatest satisfaction at the election of Pius X, adding that he was proud and happy to have been able to have the American pilgrimage received the day after the election of the new Pope. This was the first time since the first of the day, was an event that neither Pius X nor the Americans will ever forget.

Cardinal Gibbons was unable to assist at the consecration of Archbishop Harty because today being the feast day of his titular church, Santa Maria Di Trastevere, he had to assist at mass there. The Cardinal left Rome to-night for Switzerland, where he will remain some time with a friend to recover from his labors in Rome. The cardinal, however, is only suffering from a slight lassitude, otherwise he is perfectly well. Before his departure he received most cordial wishes from the cardinals still in Rome, who wished to manifest their esteem and affection for him.

BARRETT UNDER FIRE

NEPHEW OF J. E. TYNER BEFORE THE POSTAL FIRING BOARD.

His Connection with "Get-Rich-Quick" Schemes Investigated by the Postoffice Inspectors.

TO GO BEFORE GRAND JURY

MATTERS AFFECTING THE WELL-BEING OF THE DEPARTMENT

Will Be Taken Up This Week—Payne on the Beavers Case—New Rural Routes in Indiana.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Harrison J. Barrett, nephew of James N. Tyner, of Indiana, former attorney general for the Postoffice Department, was put through the "sweating" process by the postoffice inspectors today. Barrett was formerly connected with the law division of the department, and subsequently represented "get-rich-quick" concerns which are said to have benefited through decisions handed down by the former assistant attorney general. Barrett is understood to have been responsible for the decisions. It cannot be learned that the conference today was productive of any results so far as the investigation of the law division is concerned.

The grand jury here will meet next week to consider postoffice cases and it is expected that several indictments will be handed down. This grand jury is expected to be the last. Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow has concluded his labors so far as running down illegal transactions are concerned, and will devote himself from now on to preparing his report to the President.

Postmaster General Payne was questioned today concerning the case of George W. Beavers, who is supposed to be keeping his person just out of reach of the arm of the law. The postmaster general said he did not propose to criticize the course of United States District Attorney Young of Brooklyn in this connection.

"It is entirely out of the hands of the department," said Mr. Payne. "We have confidence that the Department of Justice will cause Mr. Beavers' arrest when he is ready to be disposed of."

Beavers' immunity whatsoever. He is not hesitating to say that Beavers will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

Fourth Assistant Bristow was asked if the postoffice inspectors were looking for Beavers. He said: "If they were looking for him I wouldn't tell you and if they were not looking for him I wouldn't admit it."

New Rural Routes.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Rural free delivery has been ordered established in Indiana to take effect Sept. 15, as follows: